

Internship

On January 29th,2020, faculty of medicine internship students went to preparatory schools, as one of the extracurricular activities, to perform ophthalmological examination (eye examination) for the students.

